9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Case scenario:

Client has a trust account that her sister is a trustee. The trustee withdraws money ($425) monthly from the Trust account to pay for Home Owner Association (HOA) on client's behalf.

For Resource: it is exempt under MCE rule.

For Income: Is it also exempt?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Per 63-502.147 (page 233.1) It states "Monies which are withdrawn or dividends which are or could be received by a household from an excluded trust fund [see Section 63-501.3(h)]. Such trust withdrawals shall be considered income in the month received, unless excluded under Section 63-502.2. Dividends which the household has the option of either receiving as income or reinvesting in the trust are to be considered as income in the month they become available to the household unless excluded under Section 63-502.2."

I think this money ($425) is considered as unearned income and to be counted in the CF budget (because: if resources produce income, it's counted as income in the month received)

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

Based on the above scenario the State concurs with your answer. The unearned income received Income received from the irrevocable trust, does not qualify as an exclusion under MPP 63-502.2.
